

Biennale: 2

The Second Thessaloniki Biennale of Contemporary Art, whose theme this year is “Praxis: Art in Times of Uncertainty” and which opens May 24 at several of the city’s art venues, explores the role of art in times of uncertainty. Curated by Syrago Tsiara, Bisi Silva and Gabriela Salgado, the biennale advocates that contemporary art should have a more active effect on the social and political reality.

This year’s event will feature the work of 110 Greek and international artists and will include a plethora of exhibitions and events, including a performance art festival. Organized by the State Museum of Contemporary Art (Lazariston Monastery, 21 Kolokotroni, tel 2310.589.140), “Biennale: 2” starts May 24 and runs to September 27.
